The petitioner-A2, who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offence punishable under Sections 125, 126(2), 296(b), 115(2), 118(1) and 351(2) of BNS Act, in Crime No.309 of 2024 on the file of the respondent police, seek anticipatory bail.

2.The case of the prosecution is that during a quarrel regarding bursting of crackers, there was a scuffle during which, the accused assaulted the de-facto complainant with a stick and stones abused with filthy language. Hence the case.

3. The learned Counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has been falsely implicated in this case. Hence, he prayed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) for the respondent would submit that the accused abused the de-facto complainant with filthy language and assaulted with a stick and stones, resulting which, the de-facto complainant sustained injuries. Hence, he opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record including the FIR.

6. Taking into consideration the facts and circumstances of the case and the submissions made by the learned counsel on either side, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

7. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate-I Court, Alandur on condition that the petitioner shall execute a separate bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent police or the police officer who intends to arrest or to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate concerned, failing which, the petition for anticipatory bail shall stand dismissed and on further condition that:

[a] the petitioner and the sureties shall affix their photographs and Left Thumb Impression in the surety bond and the Magistrate may obtain a copy of their Aadhar card or Bank pass Book to ensure their identity.
