(Order of the Court was made by R.Mahadevan, J.)

This miscellaneous petition has been filed by the petitioner/Revenue seeking to condone the delay of 619 days in re-presenting the above Writ Appeal.

2.Heard the learned Special Government Pleader appearing for the petitioner and perused the affidavit filed in support of this petition, wherein, it has been stated that the Registry has returned the appeal papers for rectification of certain defects on 07.01.2022. After rectifying the defects, the appeal papers could not be re-presented, within the time stipulated, as the same was mixed with some other bundles. Upon search, on 20.11.2023, the writ appeal papers were found out from a heap of old bundles and the same were re-presented before the Registry. Thus, the delay of 619 days in re-presenting the appeal papers is neither wilful nor wanton and same may be condoned.

3.Having regard to the reasons stated by the petitioner, which appear to be bona fide, considering the huge delay in re-presenting the appeal papers, we are inclined to condone the delay subject to payment of costs of Rs.500/- by the petitioner to the Tamil Nadu Mediation and Conciliation Centre, High Court,
