Crl.O.P.No.27070 of 2023

C.V.KARTHIKEYAN, J.

The petitioner who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 153A and 153B of IPC in Crime No.843 of 2023, seeks anticipatory bail.

2.The petitioner is affiliated to RSS and he is one of the participants of the Annual Route March, which had been conducted after permission has been granted with certain conditions by the Hon'ble Supreme Court.

3.It is the case of the respondent that during the Annual Route March, the conditions imposed had been violated, necessitating registration of the First Information Report.

4.The learned counsel for the petitioner, however, disputed that particular contention and stated that no condition had been violated and as a matter of fact, stated that the entire Annual Route March had been videographed and since there were further restrictions imposed, there was a necessity to file contempt petition against the respondent.

5. One of the conditions, which according to the respondent has been violated was the condition not to issue any pamphlet which would contain any statement which would directly affect the integrity of the country or is targeted against a particular class of citizens of the country. However, this allegation is also seriously disputed by the learned counsel for the petitioner herein.

6. These are issues on facts, which will have to be examined during the course of trial. The Annual Route March had now been completed and if there are violations committed, then the respondent are at liberty to point them out whenever permissions are sought again.

7. At this stage, the only condition which can be imposed by this Court is for an affidavit to be filed by the petitioner that he would never violate any condition, if imposed by any Court or by the police officials who regulate the Route March in future. Let him also file an affidavit explaining whether any of the conditions already imposed had been violated during the Annual Route March, which had been
