Cheyyur Taluk, Chengalpet District with the aid of police protection from the respondents 5 and 6.

2. Heard the learned counsel appearing for the petitioner and the learned Additional Government Pleader appearing for the respondents and perused the materials available on record.

3. Learned Government Pleader appearing for the respondents fairly conceded that the respondents will consider the petitioner's representation with regard to survey the petitioner's land.

4. Having regard to the submissions made by the learned counsel on either side, taking into consideration the limited prayer sought for by the petitioner, without expressing any opinion with regard to the merits of the case, this Court directs the second respondent to consider the petitioner's representation, if the petitioner is otherwise eligible and after issuing notice to the petitioner, adjacent land owners of the four boundaries of the subject property/interested parties/rival
