2. The case of the prosecution is that petitioner along with other accused illegally transported one unit of river sand. Hence, the case.

3. Learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has been falsely implicated in this case. He also submitted that the petitioner is in custody from 01.11.2024 and he is also ready to abide by any stringent conditions that may be imposed by this Court. 6. Heard the learned counsel appearing for the petitioner, the learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent Police and perused the materials available on record.

7. On considering the voluntary submission made by the learned counsel for the petitioner, the petitioner is directed to deposit a sum of Rs.2,000/- (Rupees Two Thousand only) as non refundable deposit to "District Legal Services Authority, Tirupathur", without prejudice to his rights and contentions before the trial Court.

8. Merely because the petitioner deposits the said amount, it would not amount to admission of his guilt. Therefore, it is open to the trial Court to deal with the case independently.
