The petitioner, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offence punishable under Sections 147, 148, 294(b), 353, 307, 506(2) r/w Section 149 IPC, in S.C.No.395 of 2023, pending on the file of the learned VII Additional Judge, City Civil Court, Chennai, in connection with Crime No.53 of 2023, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. Learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is facing trial in S.C.No.395 of 2023 on the file of learned VII Additional Judge, City Civil Court, Chennai, for the offences under Sections 147, 148, 294(b), 353, 307, 506(2) r/w 149 IPC. He further submitted that the petitioner has been regularly appearing before the trial Court on all hearing dates, while so, due to his illness, he was unable to appear before the trial Court on 26.09.2024, thereby, a Nonailable Warrant was issued by the trial Court, against him. He also submitted that the petitioner is ready to appear before the trial Court and and also he is ready to co-operate for speedy disposal of the trial. Hence, she prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

3. Learned Government Advocate (CrI.side) submitted that since the petitioner, who is an accused facing trial in S.C.No.395 of 2023, pending on the file of the learned VII Additional Judge, City Civil Court, Chennai, has failed to appear before the trial Court on 26.09.2024, the trial Court has issued a Non-Bailable Warrant of arrest against him. He also submitted that due to the absence of the petitioner, the trial Judge is unable to frame charges and to proceed with the trial and now the case stands posted on 18.12.2024 for hearing. He further submitted that the only option available to the petitioner is to surrender before the Court concerned and to file petition seeking to recall the warrant and therefore the petition for anticipatory bail may not be maintainable. Hence, he object for grant of anticipatory bail.

4. Heard the learned counsel appearing for the petitioner and the learned Government Advocate (CrI.Side) for the respondents and perused the materials available on record.
