Apprehending arrest in connection with Crime No.09 of 2024 registered for the offences punishable under Section 498(A) of IPC, the present petition has been filed by the petitioners seeking anticipatory bail.

2. Pleading innocence on the part of the petitioners, false implication in the case, learned counsel for the petitioners seek indulgence of this Court. He further submits that the native of defacto complainant is Tirunelveli and she is not willing to stay with her in laws. Hence, she moved to a house separately with her husband. When the same was denied, a false complaint has been given and that the petitioners are ready to abide by any stringent condition that may be imposed by this court.

3. The case of the prosecution as per the defacto complainant, as put forth by the learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent police, opposing for grant of bail, is that the defacto complainant, Nishanthi got married to A1 on 27.10.2023. At the time of marriage, the parents of the defacto complainant had given 40 sovereigns of jewels and Rs.1 lakh as cash. The further allegation is that the accused had demanded further 80 sovereigns of jewels and harassed her and also driven her out of her matrimonial house.

4. Having heard the learned counsel for the petitioners and the learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) for the respondent Police and perused the materials available on record, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners with certain conditions and accordingly, he is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance within a period of fifteen days from the date of receipt of a copy of this order, before the learned Judicial Magistrate, Thirukazhukundram, on condition that the petitioners shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) each, with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent Police or the Police officer who intends to arrest or to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate concerned, failing which, the petition for anticipatory bail shall stand dismissed and on further
