The petitioner/A2, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Section 4(1)(c) and 4(1-A)(ii) of TNP Act, in Crime No.588 of 2024, on the file of the respondent police, seek anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner, along with the other accused, was found to be in illegal possession of 12 unsealed brandy and on checking the bottles, it was found that some poisonous substance has been added in the said bottles. Hence, the case.

3. Learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is innocent and he has been falsely implicated in this case. He further submitted that the petitioner is ready to abide by any stringent condition that may be imposed by this Court. Hence, he prayed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. Learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent police, while opposing for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner, submitted that the petitioner, along with the other accused, was found to be in illegal possession of 12 bottles of brandy and on checking the same, it was found that some poisonous mixture had been added in it. He further submitted that there are eleven previous cases pending against the petitioner similar in nature.

5.Heard the learned counsel for the petitioner and the learned Government Advocate (Crl.side) for the respondent and perused the materials available on record.

6.Considering the gravity of offence committed by the accused and that the bad antecedents of the petitioner, this Court is not inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner, at this stage. Accordingly, this Criminal Original Petition is dismissed.
