CrI.O.P.No.30418 of 2024

2. The incarceration of the petitioner being from 25.10.2024 pleading innocence on the part of the petitioner and false implication in the case, the learned counsel for the petitioner seeks indulgence of this Court. He would submit that a major part of the investigation is over. He would further submit that the petitioner is ready to abide by any stringent condition that may be imposed by this court.

3. The case of the prosecution, as putforth by the learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent police, opposing for grant of bail, is that the petitioner along with other accused, are offenders under the COTPA Act and they suspecting that, the defacto complainant has stolen the material from their go-down had assaulted him and poured petrol on him, later released him. He would further submit that this is second bail petition, earlier bail petition was dismissed on 13.11.2024 in CrI.O.P.No.28306 of 2024.

4. Having heard the learned counsel for the petitioner, the learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) for the respondent Police and perused the materials available on record, this court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioner with certain conditions and accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail on his executing a bond for a sum of Rs.15,000/- (Rupees Fifteen Thousand
