2. The petitioner has filed the present Public Interest Litigation on the premise that the public toilet is demolished and a house is being constructed in the said place. No details of the property are placed on record such as the survey number, plot number, the area etc. Nothing is placed on record.

3. In the absence of relevant information and the documents, it would not be possible to pass orders in the Public Interest Litigation. In case the petitioner could lay hand on some authentic documents, the petitioner may agitate afresh.

4. With the above observation, the writ petition is disposed of. There shall be no order as to costs.
