ORDER

Mr.R.Balaji, learned Standing Counsel takes notice on behalf of the respondent. With the consent of both the parties, this writ petition is taken up for final disposal at the admission stage itself.

2. This writ petition is filed seeking a direction to the respondent to pay the petitioner's interest for the belated payment of P.F., earned leave salary and gratuity at the rate of 12% per annum within a specified time.

3. Learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner joined the services of the respondent Corporation as a Conductor on 05.02.1988. He was lastly working as Traffic Inspector with Staff No.C13413 in the respondent Corporation and retired from the services on 28.02.2023. The petitioner is entitled to get employees' contribution of P.F and encashment of earned leave salary immediately after his retirement. The gratuity has to be paid within 30 days from the date of retirement/superannuation of the Petitioner. The employees' contribution of P.F and encashment of earned leave have to be settled and paid to the petitioner either on the date of retirement itself or the day next to the date of retirement. However, the respondent did not settle the terminal benefits to the petitioner immediately and on the due dates. The respondent paid petitioner the employees' contribution of P.F., earned leave salary and gratuity only on 30.10.2024 after a delay of 20 months and also the respondent did not pay petitioner any interest for the delayed payment.

4. Learned counsel further submitted that the petitioner made a representation dated 06.11.2024 to the respondent requesting to pay the petitioner's interest. However, the respondent was not considered the same and has not taken any action so far. Hence the writ petition is filed.

5. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

6. Without going into the merits of the case, the respondent is directed to pay the eligible and admissible amount with interest at the rate of 6% per annum for the belated payment to the petitioner within a period of eight weeks from the date of receipt of a copy of this order. It is made clear that if the amount is not paid within the time frame by this
