Crl.O.P.No.29563 of 2024

pleading innocence on the part of the petitioner and false implication in the case, the learned counsel for the petitioner seeks indulgence of this Court. He also submits that the petitioner is an ITI student and he is no way connected with the alleged offence. He further submits that the petitioner is ready to abide by any stringent condition that may be imposed by this Court.

3. The case of the prosecution as putforth by the learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent police, opposing for grant of bail, is that the de facto complainant got introduced to one Rahul through the Grindr app and since both of them were homosexual, on 25.10.2024, they met in person, during such time, the accused video graphed them and by intimidating them at knife point, robbed mobile phone, cash and taken away the de facto complainant's bike. He further submits that three previous cases are pending against the petitioner.

4. Having heard the learned counsel for the petitioner and the learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) for the respondent Police and perused the materials available on record and also considering the period of incarceration undergone by the petitioner, this court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioner
