2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner, who was working as an Employee in Neyveli Lignite Corporation with the help of the Head Constable, had allegedly obtained NOC fraudulently. Hence, this case.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has been falsely implicated in this case. He further submitted that the petitioner is no way connected with the alleged offence and prayed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The case of the prosecution as put forth by the learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) appearing for the respondent Police, opposing for grant of anticipatory bail, is that the petitioner had allegedly obtained NOC fraudulently with the help of police constable, who is A1 in this case. He further submitted that the petitioner has six previous cases pending against him. He also submitted that this Court had already dismissed the anticipatory bail petition filed by the petitioner in Crl.O.P.No.28342 of 2024 by an order dated 13.11.2024.
