CrI.O.P.No.29615 of 2024

2. The incarceration of the petitioner being from 02.11.2024 pleading innocence on the part of the petitioner and false implication in the case, the learned counsel for the petitioner seeks indulgence of this Court. He also submits that it is true that the petitioner has several previous cases and in order to keep the petitioner under fetters, the respondent had foisted the present case against him. He also submits that the co-accused in this case have been granted bail by this court in CrI.O.P.Nos.28317 & 28398 of 2024. He further submits that the petitioner is no way connected with the alleged offence and he is ready to abide by any stringent condition that may be imposed by this court.

3. The case of the prosecution as putforth by the learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent police, opposing for grant of bail, is that when the respondent and his team were on their regular patrol duty, they have seen that the accused had assembled together and were making preparation for committing dacoity. He also submits that 17 previous cases are pending against the petitioner.

4. Having heard the learned counsel for the petitioner and the learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) for the respondent Police and perused the
