Apprehending arrest in connection with Crime No.124 of 2024 registered for the offences punishable under Section 420 of IPC and Sections 5 and 7(3) of the Lotteries Act, the present petition has been filed seeking anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner was indulged in selling fake lottery tickets to the public, which was banned by the Government of Tamil Nadu. Hence the case.

3. Pleading innocence on the part of the petitioner, false implication in the case, learned counsel for the petitioner seeks indulgence of this Court. Learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is innocent and that a case of selling banned lottery tickets has been fabricated against him. He also submits that without prejudice to the defence and contention, he is ready and willing to deposit a sum of Rs.2,000/- as non-refundable deposit to any welfare scheme of the Government or any anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions and accordingly, he is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance within a period of fifteen days from the date of receipt of a copy of this order, before the learned Judicial Magistrate No.II, Cuddalore, on condition that the petitioner shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.15,000/- (Rupees Fifteen Thousand only), with two sureties, each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent Police or the Police officer who intends to arrest or to the satisfaction of the said Magistrate, on further condition that:

[a] if the petitioner fails to surrender before the said Magistrate within a period of fifteen days, this Order shall stand automatically cancelled;

[b] the petitioner shall report before the respondent Police daily at 6.30 p.m for a period of two weeks, thereafter every Saturday at 6.30 p.m. until further orders;

[c] the petitioner shall not tamper with evidence or witness either during investigation or trial;

[d] the petitioner shall not abscond either during investigation or trial;

[e] On breach of any of the aforesaid conditions, the learned Magistrate/Trial Court is entitled to take appropriate action against the petitioner in accordance with law as if the conditions have been imposed and the petitioner released on
