4. Learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner's husband was appointed as Salesman on 29.11.2003 by the 4th respondent and he was working in the 4th respondent office for more than a period of 18 years. During the said period, her husband was working without any blemish and to the satisfaction of the respondents. While so, on 19.08.2019, the petitioner's husband died due to accident. After the death of petitioner's husband, she approached the 1st respondent on 04.11.2019 for her employment under compassionate category for suitable post. Pursuant to the said application, the 1st respondent forwarded her petition to the 4th respondent and the 4th respondent vide his proceedings in Na.Ka.No.26/2018/C.V.4 dated 09.11.2019 sent a letter to the 1st respondent stating that in the TASMACH, there is no specific job for women and therefore, advised the petitioner to approach other departments. The petitioner submitted a representation to the 2nd respondent to consider her employment in the respondent department under compassionate ground on various occasions and the same was pending without progress. On 05.12.2019, the Hon'ble Chief Minister Special Cell sent a request to the 4th respondent regarding her appointment on compassionate ground in

Request No.153479/2019. The 4th respondent vide his proceedings in Na.Ka.No.25/2019/C.V.4 dated 06.12.2019 rejected her request and informed that they can't give an employment to her under compassionate ground and directed her to approach the 2nd respondent. He further submitted that the petitioner's husband is the only breadwinner of the family and after her husband demise, the petitioner's family is financially suffering. Hence, the petitioner came up with this petition to direct the respondents to appoint her in any of the post in the respondent department.

5. Learned Special Government Pleader appearing for the respondents would submit that the petitioner's case will be considered by the respondents on its own merits and in accordance with law, within the time fixed by this Court.

6. In view of the same, without going into the merits of the claim made by the petitioner, this Court is inclined to direct the respondents to
