in C.M.A.SR.No.126656 of 2023

KRISHNAN RAMASAMY, J.

This petition has been filed to condone the delay of 66 days in filing the above appeals.

2. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would submit that the private notice has been served to the respondents and in this regard, he had also filed the affidavit of service, wherein it has been stated that the private notice sent to the respondents 1 and 2 has been returned with an endorsement “Refused” and the private notice sent to the other respondents are served.

3. However, in spite of the service of private notice, there is no representation on behalf of the respondents.

4. Being satisfied with the reasons assigned by the petitioner and for the interest of justice, this Court is inclined to allow this petition.

5. Accordingly, this petition is allowed and the delay of 66 days in filing the appeal is condoned.
