SUNDER MOHAN, J.

The petitioners/Accused, who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offence punishable under Sections 191(2), 296(b), 115(2), 118(1) and 351(3) of BNS, 2023 in Crime No.307 of 2024, on the file of the respondent police, seek anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that due to previous enmity between the petitioners and the defacto complainant's family, who are close relatives, the petitioners are said to have attacked the defacto complainant with hands and the 1st petitioner is said to have attacked him with an iron rod. Hence the case.

3. Learned counsel for the petitioners would submit that the petitioners are innocent persons and they have been falsely implicated in this case. He would further submit that it is a case and case in counter and the petitioners had filed a complaint against the defacto complainant in Crime No.308 of 2024. He would further submit that the petitioners are ready to abide by any stringent conditions that may be imposed by this Court. Hence, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. Learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) for the respondent Police, on instructions, would submit that the injured persons have been discharged from hospital and there are no previous cases pending as against the petitioners. However, he vehemently opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5. Heard the learned counsel appearing for the petitioners, the learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) for the respondent Police and perused the materials available on record.

6. Taking into consideration of the nature of allegations against the petitioners and also taking note of the fact that injured persons have been discharged from hospital and custodial interrogation of the petitioners is not required, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners with certain conditions.

7. Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate No.II, Dharmapuri on condition that the petitioner shall execute a separate bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) with two sureties, each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent police or the police officer who intends to arrest or to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate concerned, failing which, the petition for anticipatory bail shall stand dismissed and on further condition that:

[a] the petitioners and the sureties shall affix their photographs and Left Thumb Impression in the surety bond and the Magistrate may obtain a copy of their Aadhar card or Bank pass Book to ensure their identity.

[b] the petitioners shall report before the respondent police everyday at 10.30 a.m., until further orders;
