3. The main grievance of the petitioner is that the private respondents are disturbing his possession and obstructing him to do the cultivation in his agricultural field. The petitioner has to establish his right through oral and documentary evidence by approaching the Civil court and not by way of writ petition. Since, it requires pleadings, oral and documentary evidence and trial, this Court cannot conduct a roving enquiry.

4. In view of the above, the Writ Petition is dismissed. However, the petitioner is at liberty to work out his remedy before appropriate forum in the manner known to law. There shall be no order as to costs.
