2. The incarceration of the petitioner being from 01.11.2024 pleading innocence on the part of the petitioner and false implication in the case, learned counsel for the petitioner seeks indulgence of this Court. He also submits that this is the second application for bail filed by the petitioner before this Court. He further submits that the petitioner is in no way connected with the alleged offence and he is ready to abide by any stringent condition that may be imposed by this Court.

3. The case of the prosecution as putforth by the learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent police, opposing for grant of bail, is that since the de facto complainant had questioned the petitioner/accused for his rash driving, there arouse a quarrel between them, during such time, the accused had abused the de facto complainant in filthy language and assaulted him with tea glass. He further submits that the investigation is still pending and further, three previous cases are pending against the petitioner and this is his second bail application.

4. Having heard the learned counsel for the petitioner and the learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) for the respondent Police and perused the materials available on record and considering the period of incarceration undergone by the petitioner, this court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioner
