Crl.O.P.No.30000 of 2024

A.D.JAGADISH CHANDIRA, J.

Apprehending arrest in connection with Crime No.640 of 2024 registered for the offences punishable under Sections 303(2) of BNS and Section 21(1) of Mines and Minerals (Development & Regulation) Act, the present petition has been filed seeking anticipatory bail.

2.Pleading innocence on the part of the petitioners, false implication in the case, learned counsel for the petitioners seek indulgence of this court. He also submits that the petitioners, without prejudice to the defence and contention, are ready and willing to deposit a sum of Rs.10,000/- each to any welfare scheme of the Government or any other organization. He further submits that the petitioners are ready to abide by any stringent condition that may be imposed by this court.

3.The case of the prosecution as putforth by the learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent police, opposing for grant of anticipatory bail, is that the petitioners were found to be illegally transported six units of sand in a tipper lorry bearing Reg. No.TN 88 L

3835. The learned counsel further submits that there is no previous cases pending against the petitioners.

4.In respect of grant or refusal of anticipatory bail to the persons indulging in illegal sand mining, smuggling and theft of sand and minerals, the Apex Court in S.Mohamed Shahul Hameed Vs. State rep. by the Inspector of Police (Special Leave to Appeal (Crl.) No.6029 of 2020 dated 11.12.2020), while expressing disagreement with the sweep observation made by this Court on the aspect of continuous misuse of discretionary power by the offenders and the enforcers as well in an organised manner, has clarified that in consideration of anticipatory bail, the role assigned to a person would have to be considered.

5.Taking into consideration the facts and circumstances of the case, in order to curb illegal sand mining activities and considering the voluntary submission made by the learned counsel for the petitioners, the petitioners are directed to deposit a sum of Rs.10,000/- each to the credit of “District Legal Services Authority, Kancheepuram District”, without prejudice to the right of defence before the Trial Court and making it clear that it would not amount to admission of guilt.
