S.J.Mohamed Sathik, Learned Government Advocate appearing for the First and Second Respondents and Mr. S.Lakshmanasamy, Learned Counsel for the Fourth Respondent and perused the materials placed on record, apart from the pleadings of the parties.

2. Though the Petitioner had sought for transfer of the application made from the Second Respondent to the First Respondent, she could not show any enabling provision in that regard and Learned Counsel for the Petitioner confined the relief to seeking expeditiously disposal of the matter.

3. In such circumstances, the Second Respondent shall take up the application for enquiry on 06.05.2024 after issuing due notice to the Petitioner and the Third to Fifth Respondents in that regard and if he is not able then to take up the matter, the date to which it is adjourned shall be informed to the parties under written acknowledgment. It shall be ensured by the Second Respondent that there are atleast two effective hearings every month showing progress of the case, that full opportunity of hearing is afforded to all parties concerned following the prescribed procedure in consonance with the principles
