The petitioner/accused seeks anticipatory bail in Crime No.3 of 2023 registered by the respondent Police for the offences punishable under Sections 5(1) r/w 6(1) of POCSO Act.

2. It is stated that the defacto complainant and the petitioner had been in a relationship. Thereafter, since the victim child had become pregnant, a complaint had been lodged. The statement under Section 164(5) Cr.P.C. had been recorded from the victim child. There appears to be an indication of meeting in minds. Let me not enter into any further discussion, in view of the stand taken by the respective parties.

3. However, taking all the other factors into consideration this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Special judge, Mahila Court, Tiruvallur District, on condition that the petitioner shall

[e] On breach of any of the aforesaid conditions, the learned Magistrate/Trial Court is entitled to take appropriate action against the petitioner in accordance with law as if the conditions have been imposed and the petitioners released on bail by the learned Magistrate/Trial Court himself as laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in P.K.Shaji vs. State of Kerala [(2005)AIR SCW 5560].

[f] If the accused thereafter absconds, a fresh FIR can be registered under Section 229A IPC.
