ORDER

After submitting for a brief while, the learned counsel for the petitioner seeks liberty to file a rectification petition. According to the learned counsel for the petitioner, the order suffers from error apparent on the face of the record including failure to take into account taxes already paid.

2. The above submission of the learned counsel for the petitioner was not objected to by the learned Government Advocate for the respondent.

3. Recording the submission of the learned counsels for the petitioner and the respondent, the writ petition stands disposed of with liberty to the petitioner to file a rectification petition within a period of two weeks from the date of receipt of a copy of this order. If any such rectification petition is filed within the stipulated period, the same would be considered and orders would be passed by the Respondent in accordance with law after providing the petitioner a reasonable opportunity. Recovery proceedings shall be kept in abeyance until the disposal of the rectification petition.

4. The writ petition stands disposed of. No costs. Consequently, the
