2. The case of the prosecution is that the defacto complainant's son was working in the petrol bunk. There were heavy rains on 04.12.2023 and all of a sudden, the entire petrol bunk caved in. In that incident, the petitioner's son went missing. Based on the complaint, a man missing FIR was registered in Crime No.849 of 2023 on 05.12.2023. Subsequently, an alteration report was filed and the offence was altered to Section 304(II) of IPC. There are totally 6 accused persons in this case and the petitioner has been arrayed as A2. It is alleged that there was negligence on the part of the petitioner as of which the incident had taken place.

3. The learned Government Advocate appearing on behalf of the respondent police submitted that out of 6 accused persons, A1, A2 and A4 were arrested and the other accused persons are absconding. A4 filed a bail petition before this Court in Crl.O.P.No.29263 of 2023 and the bail was granted by imposing certain conditions by order dated 29.12.2023.

side and the materials available on record.

5. In the instant case, the entire incident had taken place due to abnormal rains that poured over Chennai resulting in inundation of almost entire Chennai on 4th and 5th of December 2023. investigation or trial.

(vi) On breach of any of the aforesaid conditions, the learned Judicial Magistrate/Trial Court is entitled to take appropriate action against the petitioners in accordance with law as if the conditions have been imposed and the petitioners released on bail by the learned Magistrate/Trial Court himself as laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in the case of P.K.Shaji vs. State of Kerala reported in [(2005) AIR SCW 5560].
