2. The incarceration of the petitioner/A2 being from 25.10.2024 pleading innocence on the part of the petitioner and false implication in the case, learned counsel for the petitioner seeks indulgence of this Court. He also submits that the petitioner was arrested based on the confession statement recorded from A1 and even as per the prosecution, the contraband seized is only an intermediate quantity and further, the petitioner is ready to abide by any stringent condition that may be imposed by this Court.

3. The case of the prosecution as putforth by the learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent police, opposing for grant of bail, is that the accused were found to be in illegal possession of 9.735 kilograms of Ganja. He further submits that against the petitioner, 6 previous cases including three similar nature cases are pending, therefore, if he is released on bail, there is every possibility of him absconding and not available for further investigation.

4. Having heard the learned counsel for the petitioner and the learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) for the respondent Police and perused the materials available on record and considering the period of incarceration undergone by the petitioner, this court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioner
