2. Pleading innocence on the part of the petitioners, false implication in the case, learned counsel for the petitioners seeks indulgence of this Court. He further submits that the petitioner is innocent and settlement talks are currently underway between the petitioner and the de-facto complainant. He would further submit that the petitioner is ready to abide by any stringent condition that may be imposed by this court.

3. The case of the prosecution, as put forth by the learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent police, opposing for grant of bail, is that the petitioner had cheated the de-facto complainant under the guise of securing a job to the tune of Rs.3,90,000/-. He further submitted that some settlement talks are underway between the parties and there is no previous case is pending against the petitioner.

4. Having heard the learned counsel for the petitioner and the learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) for the respondent Police and perused the
