BNS, is on board for consideration.

2. The incarceration of the petitioner/A1 being from 23.10.2024 pleading innocence on the part of the petitioner and false implication in the case, learned counsel for the petitioner seeks indulgence of this Court. He also submits that the petitioner is in no way connected with the alleged offence, however, he was implicated in this case, since he has several previous cases. He further submits that the petitioner is ready to abide by any stringent condition that may be imposed by this court.

3. The case of the prosecution as putforth by the learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent police, opposing for grant of bail, is that the accused, in an inebriated condition, had trespassed into the library by breaking open the lock and damaged the articles and when the same was questioned by the de facto complainant and other villagers, the accused had abused them in filthy language and attempted to assault them. He also submits that the investigation in this case is still pending and the petitioner is a habitual offender, against whom, 30 previous cases are pending.

4. Having heard the learned counsel for the petitioner and the learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) for the respondent Police and perused the
