Apprehending arrest in connection with Crime No.281 of 2024 registered for the offences punishable under Section 303(2) of Bharatiya Nyaya

Crl.O.P.No.30574 of 2024

Sanhita and Section 21(1) of the Mines and Minerals (Development and Regulation) Act, 1957, the present petition has been filed by the petitioner seeking anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that based on the information, the respondent police found that the petitioners illegally transported 4 units of stones using a lorry bearing Registration No.TN-14-S-2371, without any valid license. Hence, the case

3. Pleading innocence on the part of the petitioner, false implication in the case, learned counsel for the petitioners seek indulgence of this Court. Learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioners are innocent and that a case of stones theft has been fabricated against them. He also submits that the petitioners have no previous case against them and without prejudice to the defence and contention, they are ready and willing to deposit a sum of Rs.15,000/- as non-refundable deposit to any welfare scheme of the Government or any organization. He further submits that the petitioners are ready to abide by any stringent condition that may be imposed by this Court.

4. The case of the prosecution as putforth by the learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) appearing for the respondent Police, opposing for grant of anticipatory bail, is that the quantity of stones involved is 4 units. He would submit that the petitioners have no previous cases pending against them.

5. Heard the learned counsel for the petitioners and the learned Government Advocate (Crl.side) for the respondent and perused the materials available on record.

6. In respect of grant or refusal of anticipatory bail to the persons indulging in illegal sand mining, smuggling and theft of sand and minerals, the Apex Court in S.Mohamed Shahul Hameed Vs. State rep. by the Inspector of Police (Special Leave to Appeal (Crl.) No.6029 of 2020 dated 11.12.2020), while expressing disagreement with the sweep observation made by this Court on the aspect of continuous misuse of discretionary power by the offenders and the enforcers as well in an organised manner, has clarified that in consideration of anticipatory bail, the role assigned to a person would have to be considered.

7. Taking into consideration the facts and circumstances of the case and the sand involved is small quantity and that there is no previous case pending against the petitioners, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner. However, in order to curb illegal sand mining activities and taking into consideration the voluntary submission made by the petitioners offering to deposit a considerable amount to any charitable organization or association, this Court is of the opinion that as one of the conditions for grant of anticipatory bail, the petitioners may be directed to deposit a sum of Rs.15,000/- (Rupees Fifteen Thousand only) to the credit of District Legal Services Authority, Chengalpattu District, without prejudice to his rights and contentions before the trial Court.

8.It is made clear that merely because the petitioner is depositing the amount, it would not amount to the petitioner admitting his guilt in the criminal case and such amount is being paid without prejudice to the right of the petitioner.

9.Accordingly, the petitioner shall make a non refundable deposit of Rs.15,000/- (Rupees Fifteen Thousand only) by way of Demand Draft/RTGS/NEFT to the credit of the District Legal Services Authority, Chengalpattu District, and on such deposit and on receipt of proof of
