Cr1.O.P.No.30530 of 2024

Corruption (amendment) Act, 2018 is on board for consideration.

2.The incarceration of the petitioner being from 18.10.2024 pleading innocence on the part of the petitioner and false implication in the case, learned counsel for the petitioner seeks indulgence of this Court. He also submits that the petitioner is no way connected with the alleged offences and he is ready to abide by any stringent condition that may be imposed by this court.

3.The case of the prosecution as putforth by the learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent police, opposing for grant of bail, is that the petitioner, in spite of the order of the Tahsildar granting permission to the de facto complainant to take alluvial soil for agricultural purposes, had demanded illegal gratification from the de facto complainant to permit him to take sand from the tank bound. During the trap, the petitioner had received a sum of Rs.7000/- from the de facto complainant.

4.Having heard the learned counsel for the petitioner and the learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) for the respondent Police and perused the materials available on record, this court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioner with certain conditions and accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail on his executing a bond for a sum of Rs.15,000/- (Rupees Fifteen Thousand only) with two sureties, each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the learned
