2. The incarceration of the petitioner being from 05.11.2024 pleading innocence on the part of the petitioner and false implication in the case, learned counsel for the petitioner seeks indulgence of this Court. He also submits that the petitioner is in no way connected with the alleged offence and he himself is the victim to the offence committed by the main accused. He further submits that the petitioner is a heart patient and he needs a regular medication and also submits that the petitioner is ready to abide by any stringent condition that may be imposed by this Court.

3. The case of the prosecution as putforth by the learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent police, opposing for grant of bail, is that the de facto complainant and other victims had leased out their cars for monthly rental to the accused, whereas, the accused, without the knowledge of the car owners, had sold the cars to third parties. When the car owners asked for the return of their cars, the accused threatened them with dire consequences. He further submits that there are 44 victims in this case and the total cars cheated by the accused are 52 cars, out of which, 37 were recovered. He also submits that
