for consideration.

2. The incarceration of the petitioner being from 19.10.2024 pleading innocence on the part of the petitioner and false implication in the case, learned counsel for the petitioner seeks indulgence of this Court. He also submits that the petitioner has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution, whereas, only to keep him under fetters, this case has been foisted. He also submits that the petitioner is ready to abide by any stringent condition that may be imposed by this court.

3. The case of the prosecution as putforth by the learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent police, opposing for grant of bail, is that the petitioner/A2 along with other accused had waylaid the de facto complainant and his friend and by intimidating them at knife point, robbed their mobile phones and a sum of Rs.500/- from them. He also submits that seven previous cases are pending against the petitioner.

4. Having heard the learned counsel for the petitioner and the learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) for the respondent Police and perused the materials available on record, and also considering the period of
