2. The incarceration of the petitioner/A2 being from 26.10.2024 pleading innocence on the part of the petitioner and false implication in the case, learned counsel for the petitioner seeks indulgence of this Court. He also submits that the petitioner has nothing to do with the alleged offence and he is ready to abide by any stringent condition that may be imposed by this court.

3. The case of the prosecution as putforth by the learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent police, opposing for grant of bail, is that the accused had trespassed into the house of the de facto complainant, by breaking open the door and committed theft of 2 sovereigns of gold jewels, a cash of Rs.50,000/- and several grams of silver articles. He further submits that only 12 grams of gold jewels have been recovered. He also submits that there is no previous case against the petitioner.

4. Having heard the learned counsel for the petitioner and the learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) for the respondent Police and perused the materials available on record and taking note of the period of incarceration undergone by the petitioner and that there is no previous case against the petitioner, this court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioner with certain
