innocence on the part of the petitioner and false implication in the case, learned counsel for the petitioner seeks indulgence of this Court. He also submits that the marriage between the petitioner and the deceased having been solemnised in the year 2018, they had been living peacefully and a dispute arose only between the wife of the petitioner and her father with regard to a property and since her father harassed her, she had committed suicide. He also submits that the petitioner is no way connected with the alleged offences and he is ready to abide by any stringent condition that may be imposed by this court.

3.The case of the prosecution, as putforth by the learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent police opposing for grant of bail, is that the petitioner had forced his wife, who is the daughter of the de facto complainant, to get an acre of land from the de facto complainant and there upon, there were frequent quarrels between them. The petitioner is also said to have beaten and tortured his wife, resulting in her taking the extreme step of committing suicide.

4.Having heard the learned counsel for the petitioner and the learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) for the respondent Police and perused the materials available on record and considering the period of incarceration undergone by the petitioner, this court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioner
