2. The incarceration of the petitioner being from 03.11.2024 pleading innocence on the part of the petitioner and false implication in the case, the learned counsel for the petitioner seeks indulgence of this Court. He also submits that the petitioner is ready to abide by any stringent condition that may be imposed by this court. Hence, he prayed for bail.

3. The case of the prosecution as putforth by the learned Additional Public Prosecutor appearing for the respondent police, opposing for grant of bail, is that the defacto complainant purchased a lorry by getting loan for a sum of Rs.11 Lakhs. Since the defacto complainant could not pay the EMI regularly, he handed over the lorry to the petitioner on condition that he should pay the EMI every month. However, the petitioner did not pay the debt. Thereafter, the defacto complainant came to know that the petitioner had sold the vehicle for Rs.5 Lakhs, by changing the Engine Chassis number of the said vehicle. He also submitted that there are no previous cases against the petitioner.

4. Having heard the learned counsel for the petitioner and the learned Additional Public Prosecutor for the respondent Police and perused the materials available on record, and considering the period of incarceration undergone by the
