The petitioner, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 303(2) of Bharatiya Nyaya Sanhita (BNS) Act, 2023 and 21(1) of Mines & Minerals (Development & Regulation) Act, 1957, in Crime No.927 of 2024, on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2.The case of the prosecution is that, on 06.12.2024, the respondent police received a complaint from the Revenue Division Officer (Mines) that during their regular patrol duty, they found a lorry bearing Registration No.TN 37 DW 7462 transporting gravel without a valid permit. On receiving the said complaint, the respondent police seized 3 units of gravel. Hence, the case.

3.The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is innocent and that a false case has been foisted against him. He would further submit that the petitioner has no previous case against him and without prejudice to his contentions, the petitioner is prepared to deposit an amount of Rs.6,000/- towards any charitable organization or association.

Therefore, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4.The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) appearing for the respondent Police, while opposing grant of bail, would submit that the petitioner was found transporting 3 units of gravel sand illegally. He would further submit that the petitioner has no previous case pending against him.

5.Heard the learned counsel for the petitioner and the learned Government Advocate (Crl.side) for the respondent and perused the materials available on record.

6.In respect of grant or refusal of anticipatory bail to the persons indulging in illegal sand mining, smuggling and theft of sand and minerals, the Apex Court in S.Mohamed Shahul Hameed Vs. State rep. by the Inspector of Police (Special Leave to Appeal (Crl.) No.6029 of 2020 dated 11.12.2020), while expressing disagreement with the sweep observation made by this Court on the aspect of continuous misuse of discretionary power by the offenders and the enforcers as well in an organised manner, has clarified that in consideration of anticipatory bail, the role assigned to a person would have to be considered.

7.Taking into consideration the facts and circumstances of the case and that there is no previous case pending against the petitioner, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner. However, in order to curb illegal sand mining activities and taking into consideration the voluntary submission made by the petitioner offering to deposit a considerable amount to any charitable organization or association, this Court is of the opinion that as one of the conditions for grant of anticipatory bail, the petitioner may be directed to deposit a sum of Rs.6,000/- (Rupees Six Thousand only) to the credit of District Legal Services Authority, Coimbatore District, without prejudice to his rights and contentions before the trial Court.

8.It is made clear that merely because the petitioner is depositing the amount, it would not amount to the petitioner admitting his guilt in the criminal case and such amount is being paid without prejudice to the right of the petitioner.

9.Accordingly, the petitioner shall make a non refundable deposit of Rs.6,000/- (Rupees Six Thousand only) by way of Demand Draft/RTGS/NEFT to the credit of the District Legal Services Authority, Coimbatore District, and on such deposit and on receipt of proof of payment, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the Judicial Magistrate, Sulur, Coimbatore District, on condition that the petitioner shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) with two sureties for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent police or the police officer who intends to arrest or to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate concerned, failing which, the petition for anticipatory bail shall stand
