consideration.

2. The incarceration of the petitioners being from 28.11.2024 pleading innocence on the part of the petitioners and false implication in the case, learned counsel for the petitioners seeks indulgence of this Court. He also submits that the petitioners are students pursuing their degree at Savitha University and there is no bad antecedents against them. He further submits that the petitioners are ready to abide by any stringent condition that may be imposed by this Court.

3. The case of the prosecution as putforth by the learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent police, opposing for grant of bail, is that the accused were found to be in illegal possession of 100 Tydol tablets and several syringes. He also submits that there is no previous case against the petitioners, however, they are the native of Andhra Pradesh, therefore, if they are released on bail, there is every possibility of them absconding and not available for further investigation.

4. Having heard the learned counsel for the petitioners and the learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) for the respondent Police and perused the materials available on record and considering the fact that the petitioners are students and that there is no previous case against them, this court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioners with certain conditions and accordingly, the petitioners
