2.The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner had transported 2500 kgs of PDS rice by using Ashok Leyland Dost Van bearing Registration No.TN-09-B-8125 without any valid license from the Government. Hence the complaint.

3. Pleading innocence on the part of the petitioner, false implication in the case, learned counsel for the petitioner seeks indulgence of this Court. He further submits that the petitioner is innocent and he has been falsely implicated in this case. He also submits that the petitioner, without prejudice to the defence and contention, is ready and willing to deposit a sum of Rs.10,000/- to any welfare scheme of the Government or any other organization. He further submits that the petitioner is ready to abide by any stringent condition that may be imposed by this court. He further submits that the petitioner is ready to abide by any stringent condition that may be imposed by this court.

4. The case of the prosecution, as put forth by the learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent police, opposing for grant of bail, is that the petitioner had transported 2500 kgs of PDS rice by using Ashok Leyland Dost Van bearing Registration No.TN-09-B-8125 without any valid license from the Government. He further submits that no previous case is pending against the petitioner.

5. Considering the voluntary submission made by the learned counsel for the petitioner, the petitioner is directed to deposit a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) to the credit of the "District Revenue Officer, Tirupattur District," without prejudice to the right of defence before the Trial Court and making it clear that it would not amount to admission of guilt.

6. Further, having heard the learned counsel for the petitioner and the learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) for the respondent Police and
