2.The incarceration of the petitioner being from 24.11.2024 pleading innocence on the part of the petitioner and false implication in the case, learned counsel for the petitioner seeks indulgence of this Court. He also submits that the petitioner is no way connected with the alleged offences and he is ready to abide by any stringent condition that may be imposed by this court.

3.The case of the prosecution as putforth by the learned Government Advocate appearing for the respondent police, opposing for grant of bail, is that the petitioner waylaid the de facto complainant, abused him in filthy language and robbed him of a sum of Rs.700/- at knife point, threatening him with dire consequences. He further submits that there are six previous cases against the petitioner.

4.Having heard the learned counsel for the petitioner and the learned Government Advocate for the respondent Police and perused the materials available on record and considering the period of incarceration undergone by the petitioner, this court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioner with certain conditions and accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail on his executing a bond for a sum of Rs.15,000/- (Rupees Fifteen Thousand only) with two sureties, (out of which, one surety should be a blood related surety) each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the learned V Metropolitan Magistrate, Egmore,
