2. The incarceration of the petitioner/A5 being from 06.12.2024 pleading innocence on the part of the petitioner and false implication in the case, learned counsel for the petitioner seeks indulgence of this Court. He also submits that the petitioner is in no way connected with the alleged offence and he is ready to abide by any stringent condition that may be imposed by this Court.

3. The case of the prosecution as putforth by the learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent police, opposing for grant of bail, is that when the de facto complainant, who is running a grocery shop, had refused to give mamool as demanded by the accused, the accused had abused the de facto complainant in filthy language and by intimidating him at knife point, extorted a sum of Rs.850/- from him and also threatened him with dire consequences. He further submits that there is no previous case against the petitioner/A5.

4. Having heard the learned counsel for the petitioner and the learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) for the respondent Police and perused the materials available on record and considering that there is no previous case against the petitioner, this court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioner with
