board for consideration.

2.The incarceration of the petitioner being from 18.11.2024 pleading innocence on the part of the petitioner and false implication in the case, learned counsel for the petitioner seeks indulgence of this Court. He also submits that the petitioner is no way connected with the alleged offences and he is ready to abide by any stringent condition that may be imposed by this court. He also submits that the investigation in this matter has already been completed.

3.The case of the prosecution as putforth by the learned Government Advocate appearing for the respondent police, opposing for grant of bail, is that the petitioner waylaid the de facto complainant, abused him with filthy language and snatched a sum of Rs.330/- from him and threatened him with dire consequences. He further submits that in this matter charge sheet has been filed before the learned XV Metropolitan Magistrate, George town at Chennai.

4.Having heard the learned counsel for the petitioner and the learned Government Advocate for the respondent Police and perused the materials available on record and considering the period of incarceration undergone by the petitioner, this court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioner with certain conditions and accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail on his executing a bond for a sum of Rs.15,000/- (Rupees Fifteen Thousand only) with
