2. The incarceration of the petitioner being from 28.11.2024, pleading innocence on the part of the petitioner and false implication in the case, learned counsel for the petitioner seeks indulgence of this Court. He submits that the petitioner, without prejudice to the defence and contention, is ready and willing to deposit a sum of Rs.5,000/-, to any welfare scheme of the Government or any other organization. He further submits that the petitioner is ready to abide by any stringent condition that may be imposed by this court.

3. The case of the prosecution as putforth by the learned Additional Public Prosecutor appearing for the respondent police, opposing for grant of bail, is that the petitioner along with the other accused were found to be in illegal possession of 1.100 Kgs of Ganja. He would submit that there is no recovery from the petitioner. However, the petitioner has got two previous cases, which are similar in nature, therefore, if the petitioner is released on bail, there is a possibility of him absconding and not available for further investigation.

4. Considering the voluntary submission made by the learned counsel for the petitioner, the petitioner is directed to deposit a sum of Rs.5,000/- (Rupees Five Thousand only), to the credit of Charu Home for Aged, Account
