2. The incarceration of the petitioner being from 18.11.2024 pleading innocence on the part of the petitioner and false implication in the case, the learned counsel for the petitioner seeks indulgence of this Court. He submitted that the defacto complainant had insisted the petitioner to stop the bus at a place. When the same was refused, she has given a false complaint against him, as if he had misbehaved with him. He further submits that the petitioner is ready to abide by any stringent condition that may be imposed by this court. Hence, he prayed for bail.

3. The case of the prosecution as putforth by the learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent police, opposing for grant of bail, is that the petitioner, who is the driver of a Omni Bus, had misbehaved with the victim / passenger, who is a medical college student, while she was travelling from Erode to Salem. He further submitted that there are no previous cases against the petitioner.

4. Having heard the learned counsel for the petitioner and the learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) for the respondent Police and perused the materials available on record, and considering the period of incarceration
