Crl.O.P.No.31589 of 2024

2. The incarceration of the petitioner/A2 being from 15.11.2024 pleading innocence on the part of the petitioner and false implication in the case, learned counsel for the petitioner seeks indulgence of this Court. He also submits that the petitioner has nothing to do with the alleged offence and he is ready to abide by any stringent condition that may be imposed by this court.

3. The case of the prosecution as putforth by the learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent police, opposing for grant of bail, is that de facto complainant and others, who are the members of the Women Self Help Group, Puthupatti Village, had approached the accused, the members of NGO, for obtaining loan and the accused, in the guise of obtaining loan, cheated the de facto complainant and others to the tune of Rs.12,48,000/-. He further submits that the petitioner/A2 is the person who had assisted the first accused and the investigation in this case is still pending and till date, no recovery was made from the accused. Therefore, if the petitioner is released on bail, there is a possibility of him absconding and tampering the evidence.

4. Having heard the learned counsel for the petitioner and the learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) for the respondent Police and perused the materials available on record and considering the period of incarceration
