2.The incarceration of the petitioner being from 01.09.2018 pleading innocence on the part of the petitioner and false implication in the case, learned counsel for the petitioner seeks indulgence of this Court. He also submits that the petitioner is in judicial custody for the past six year. He also submits that the petitioner is no way connected with the alleged offences and she is ready to abide by any stringent condition that may be imposed by this court.

3.The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent police, while opposing for grant of bail, submits that in S.C. No. 77 of 2024, pending on the file of the learned Principal District and Sessions Judge at Kanchipuram, the trial is nearing completion, with the case now scheduled for the cross examination of the Investigating Officer. He further submits that if the petitioner is enlarged on bail, there is every possibility of him absconding and not available for trial proceedings.

4.Having heard the learned counsel for the petitioner and the learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) for the respondent Police and perused the materials available on record , this court is not inclined to grant bail to the petitioner. Accordingly, this Criminal Original Petition is dismissed, with the
