interest at the rate of 12% per annum and to pay the interest at the rate of 12% per annum for the belated payment of Rs.12,67,069/- towards PF for the belated payment of surrendered earned leave of Rs.13,038/- which was surrendered while the petitioner was in service, for the belated payment of Rs.8,03,045/- and for the belated payment of Rs.2,56,472/- towards Earned Leave / Medical leave salary within a specified time frame.

2. The case of the petitioner is that the petitioner is retired employee from the Respondent/Corporation. The grievance of the petitioner is that the retirement benefits, arrears of difference in pension for certain period and family benefit fund has not been paid, similarly, the difference in arrears of revised pension has not been paid, therefore, the petitioner has made a request to settle all the benefits, but the respondents have not turned up. Therefore, the petitioner gave a representation to the respondent 1 and 2 on 18.06.2024 with regard to the said issue. However, no action has been taken by the respondents till date. Hence this petition.

3.The learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that it would suffice if this Court issues a direction to the respondents to consider the

4. The learned standing counsel appearing for the respondents submitted that the representation of the petitioner will be considered and will pay the eligible amount with 6% interest per annum as per the earlier orders of this Court.

5. Considering the facts of the case, this Court on submission made by either side counsel directs the respondents to consider the representation of the petitioner and pass orders on the claim made by the petitioner within a period of twelve weeks from the date of receipt of a copy of this Order with 6% interest per annum from the date on which the amount became due and payable till the date of disbursement. It is made clear that if the amount is not paid within the time frame fixed by this Court, the same will carry interest at the rate of 12% per annum from the date on which the amount became due and payable till the date of disbursement.

6. With the above directions, this Writ Petition stands disposed of. Consequently, connected miscellaneous petition is closed. No order as to costs.
