2. The incarceration of the petitioner being from 14.11.2024 pleading innocence on the part of the petitioner and false implication in the case, learned counsel for the petitioner seek indulgence of this Court. He submits that the petitioner was arrested by the respondent only based on the suspicion that he had gone to purchase the ivory toys and further, there is no material to connect the petitioner to this crime. He further submits that the co-accused have been enlarged on bail by this Court in Crl.O.P.No.31743 of 2024 dated 19.12.2024. He also submits that the petitioner, without prejudice to the defence and contention, are ready and willing to deposit a sum of Rs.5,000/- to any welfare scheme of the Government or any other organization. He further submits that the petitioner is ready to abide by any stringent condition that may be imposed by this court.

3. The case of the prosecution as put forth by the learned Government Advocate appearing for the respondent police, opposing for grant of bail, is that the respondent have arrested the accused since they were in illegal possession of ivory toys intending to sell them. He further submits that there is no previous case against the petitioner and the investigation in this case is still pending.
