2. The incarceration of the petitioners being from 23.11.2024 pleading innocence on the part of the petitioners and false implication in the case, learned counsel for the petitioners seeks indulgence of this Court. He further submits that the petitioners are in no way connected with the alleged offence and due to previous enmity, a false compliant has been lodged against the petitioners. He also submits that the petitioners are ready to abide by any stringent condition that may be imposed by this Court.

3. The case of the prosecution as putforth by the learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent police, opposing for grant of bail, is that due to previous enmity, the accused abused the de facto complainant and his friend in filthy language and assaulted them with hands and also threatened them with dire consequences. He further submits that the investigation in this case is still pending.

4. Having heard the learned counsel for the petitioners and the learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) for the respondent Police and perused the materials available on record and considering the period of incarceration undergone by the petitioners, this court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioners
