2. The case of the prosecution is that the accused, who is the father of the minor victim girl, had committed penetrative sexual assault on the victim girl. Hence, the case.

3. Learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is an innocent person and that due to a family dispute, a false complaint has been given against him. He would submit that he is ready to abide by any stringent conditions that may be imposed by this Court. Hence, he prayed for grant of bail to the petitioner.

4. Learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) would submit that the petitioner, who is the father of the victim girl, had committed penetrative sexual assault on minor victim girl. He also produced the statement of the minor victim girl recorded under Section 164(5) Cr.P.C. Therefore, he vehemently oppose for grant of bail to the petitioner.

5. Heard the learned counsel on either side and perused the materials
