3. Though the learned Additional Advocate General is unable to justify the conduct of the review applicant, the Sub-Registrar, who has refused to register the document for reasons which are not akin to the settled principles of law, the learned Additional Advocate General expressed serious concern, as the imposition of cost may affect the career of the review applicant. The request of the learned Additional Advocate General is that, instead of cost, the amount payable by the review applicant may be in the form of donation and the order of this Court may be modified suitably.

4. Having regard to the submissions made by the learned Additional Advocate General, the direction regarding payment of Rs.20,000/- by the review applicant, found at Para No.4(ii) of the order, dated 29.09.2023, in W.A. (MD) No.1609 of 2023, is deleted. However, the submission of the learned Additional Advocate General that the review applicant will donate a sum of Rs. 20,000/- to the Kalaignar Centenary Library, is recorded.

Rev.Aplc.(MD) No.9 of 2024

5.With the above modification, this Review Application is closed. No costs. Consequently, connected miscellaneous petition is closed.

6.Post the matter for reporting compliance on 19.02.2024.
